

Annex D Model Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA)

An overview of confidentiality & Model Mutual NDA

Introduction

A Mutual NDA is a document signed by all Consortium Members plus any external advisors (in this case Impact Funding Europe), that ensures the intellectual property of the parties is protected. The Mutual NDA will enable all parties to engage in open discussions and give comfort that they can disclose confidential information safe in the knowledge it will remain private.

This document is designed to:

1. introduce the concept of a Mutual NDA
2. provide an example of a Mutual NDA
3. set the intention of partners to agree to work under a Mutual NDA (specific to the project)

Parties working under the Mutual NDA

In order to give comfort to all Consortium Members, the Mutual NDA needs to be signed by a representative of all parties involved. This includes Impact Funding Europe. This will allow for full disclosure of technical and commercial information that will form a key part of developing successful Proposals.

Model Mutual NDA

The Mutual NDA proposed for use under this Framework Agreement (see following pages) was developed by the EU Commission's IPR Helpdesk and has been made publicly available for use with collaborative grant applications.
